

British Association of Perinatal Medicine

EBNEO
Evidence-Based Neonatology

EVIDENCE & EXCELLENCE IN PERINATAL CARE

UNIVERSITY OF NORTHUMBRIA, NEWCASTLE

11-13 SEPTEMBER 2019

BOOKING NOW OPEN

- Hear from the leaders in the field on the latest best practice
- Be the first to hear ground breaking research
- Contribute to the development of policy for quality perinatal care
- Present your own work through free papers and posters
- Network with colleagues from across the British Isles and beyond
- Benefit from excellent CPD opportunities

Panel discussion on managing extreme preterm birth with Dr Helen Mactier, Prof Dominic Wilkinson, Dr Meekai To, Prof Neil Marlow

PLUS

Breakfast seminars on 'Modern media for neonatal education', 'Updates on research' and 'The National Maternity and Perinatal Audit'.

This year BAPM & EBNEO are joining forces to give you even more quality content.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

For everyone who is interested in delivering quality care to babies and their families including consultants and trainees in neonatal medicine and obstetrics, nurse practitioners, nurses, allied health care professionals, parents and advocacy organisations.

CONFIRMED SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Sustained inflation – yes or no?

Prof Haresh Kirpalani, USA

How will NNAP data make my babies better?

Dr Sam Oddie &

Dr Julie-Clare Becher, UK

Use and misuse of the number needed to treat (NNT)

Prof Barbara Schmidt, USA

Planet 2 – when to give platelets

Dr Simon Stanworth, UK

Family integrated care

– How we made it work

Dr Neil Patel

& Ms Ainsley Ballantyne, UK

Artificial gestation

– are we nearly there?

Prof Marcus Davey, USA

Fake news; lies and their impact in academic medicine

Prof Martin Elliott, UK

An update on ROP

Dr Gill Adams, UK

Managing hypoglycaemia

Prof Jane Harding, New Zealand

Hot, humid, and windy: nasal high-flow in neonatology

Dr Brett Manley, Australia

Is genomics a paradigm shift in healthcare?

Prof. Sir John Burn, UK

Pain – to stroke or not to stroke?

Dr Rebecca Slater, UK

What is evidence, and how do I know what to believe?

Prof Bill McGuire, UK

A parent's perspective

Ms Silke Mader, Germany

The infant microbiome

Dr Christopher Stewart, UK

EARLY BIRD PRICES Available until 21st July

	BAPM Member (3 days)	BAPM Member (Wed only)	BAPM Member (Thu or Fri only)	Non-member (3 days)	Non-member (Wed only)	Non-member (Thu or Fri only)
Consultants	£265	£105	£125	£315	£125	£145
Trainees	£210	£95	£110	£245	£105	£125
Nurses / AHPs / Others	£135	£65	£75	£155	£75	£85

Book now at: www.bapm.org/bapm2019